

Excerpt from "The magical world of children books" Kosvoice.gr

The theme of the book is timely and multidimensional. The problem of unemployment through the eyes of a child.

The emotions, the sadness, the questioning the electrified atmosphere at home, mum's headache are all images perceived by the young protagonist of this story and trying to decipher in his own way. The first person narrative the writer's inventiveness, the play using heads, the way of managing the situation but mainly the confrontation of the difficult situation with nothing else but love in the family, the support of it's members, give quality and value to the text
