

Cyprus State Prize for children's literature

The award reasoning

With her original and entertaining story entitled "Thief of dreams" the writer undoubtedly spurs the children's creative imagination. The script is well-written, clever, full of humor and innovations. The writer manages to pass important messages with a cheerful way making the reading of this book fun and educating for the child.